

ALERTS ON ONLINE SCAMS / FRAUDULENT MAILS

Aasraa Trust is aware of numerous forms of fraudulent correspondence including: web, email, postal mail, and telephone, all could claim to be from, or associated with Aasraa Trust or with any of its officer bearers, Founders and Trustees. These emails or other correspondence could include Aasraa Trust's logo, photos, links, names of senior officials or other information taken directly from Trust's official web site and containing a request for money or sensitive personal information

Examples of such activity include but not limited to:

- Falsely requesting donations on behalf of Aasraa Trust
- Falsely claiming that Aasraa Trust has awarded a grant to the recipient, but that the grant can only be awarded once a fee is paid or certain sensitive personal information is provided
- Falsely soliciting individuals for funding to invest in Aasraa Trust projects

Please be advised that Aasraa Trust or its employees, grantees, or partner organizations do not:

- Approach individuals in person offering grant opportunities
- Charge any sort of administrative, membership, handling or other fee when awarding a grant
- Offer prizes of any kind through email, postal mail, telephone, fax, or in person
- Request registration fees for conferences or summits
- Solicit individuals or others for investment opportunities
- Solicit donations at any time
- Request information about bank accounts or other private information

If you are the recipient of any such correspondence or are contacted by such scamsters or become aware of such scams issued from unauthorised email ids and domain names, please email it@asraatrust.org & communication@asraatrust.org , This alerts the Trust of the potential scam and enables it to take appropriate action as deemed fit. We also advise you to refrain from responding to any e-mail received from any unauthorized mail ids or from any person claiming to be an authorized representative of Aasraa Trust without verifying the veracity of the same.

Aasraa Trust assumes no liability for damages caused through unlawful or fraudulent usage of the Trust name.
